Total Bill To Go Higher When Taxing District Compilation Is Completed

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A county tax rate of $2.148 per $100 of assessed valuation was voted Tuesday by the County Board of Supervisors. This compares with $2.07 in the previous year.

The increase of 7.8 cents will cost the average homeowner $3.12 more this year than it did last. Spring Valley-Lemon Grove homes, averaging $16,000 market value, are assessed for about 25 per cent of their value.

The increase is for county taxes only. Increases in school taxes, sanitation taxes, library taxes and taxes by other taxing subdivisions will add to the increased burden.

Elmer Leppert, chief of the county tax division, said that it would be about two weeks before total county tax rates would be available for various code districts.

County government taxes usually make up about one-third of the county total tax bill. The total average rate in LG-SV code areas was near $7.35 for each $100 assessed valuation last year.

The Board also approved a county library tax rate of 9.9 cents, compared with 8 cents for the 1960-61 period. The library rate is levied in all unincorporated areas such as L.G. and S.V.

The higher rate was required to meet a record-breaking $86,483,939 budget, approved in June by Supervisors.

In adopting the tax rate resolution Tuesday, Supervisors also set the rates for some 350 other taxing bodies or social funds. These were done as the result of the auditor's calculation of the rate needed to meet the budgets set by the districts. Supervisors can control expendiures but have no control over the actual rates.

Gentry will be completing the two-year course this year.

L.G. Rest Home Gets Planning Commish's OK

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A special use permit for a $3,000,000, 230-bed development in Lemon Grove for "senior citizens" was approved Friday by the County Planning Commission.

The applicant, Monte Vista Lodge, Inc., is the first of many reported projects for retired persons to hurdle the planning commission barrier.

The Monte Vista Lodge permit was approved by the commission on the report from county counsel that the project fits into the existing county ordinance on rest homes.

Action had been held up from the commission session two weeks earlier, to determine if Monte Vista Lodge could be considered a rest home. One of the complicating factors was that the enterprise is to have a kitchenette in each apartment, although central dining facilities will be provided.

Kenneth Barwick, attorney for the corporation, said the kitchenettes were in because FHA requires them. FHA is to finance the rest home, and Barwick said the kitchenettes would only be used by residents to "boil water for a pot of tea for a guest."

The commission also granted the project a variance to allow 70 parking spaces instead of the 115 required by law. It also will permit the developers to build 40 feet from the center line of McKnight drive, instead of the required 50 feet.

The rest home is on seven acres bounded McKnight dr., Madera st., Mass. ave and Mt. Vernon Sts.

Second Big Beef Barbecue Planned For Lemon Grove

A day-long feast with delicious barbecued beef, salad, beans, rolls and coffee has been set by the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce for Sat., Sept. 16 from 11:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. It will be in the Lemon Grove Junior High cafetorium.

Chef for the community barbecue will be Sam Pernicano.

A queen has been selected to be official hostess for the event. Miss Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce Barbecue for 1961 is Julie Wells, 2312 Lawton dr., Lemon Grove, a graduate of Mt. Miguel high school who begins at San Diego State College this semester. She will be at the barbecue from 2 p.m. on.

Miss Wells recently was selected Miss College Prep Of 1961 in competition with 17 other girls.

Local merchants have donated prizes to be awarded lucky ticket holders at 8 p.m. following the barbecue. Main prize is a 35 mm. Graflex-Century 35A trigger-action camera donated by Lemon Grove Camera.

Chamber of Commerce Manager Ed Koester said that the barbecue dinner is a family event and the family groups are urged to attend. Not only will people enjoy a dinner that can't be beat at that price, he said, but they might also win one of the many prizes. Price for the dinner is $1.50 for adults and 75c for children.

Tickets can be obtained at the Chamber office at 3448 Main st. in Lemon Grove.

Here are other mechants providing prizes for the event:

Marder's Stationery
The Highlander
Lemon Grove Drug
Burriston's Shoes
Morrison-Adams Jewelers

Pampered Pet Shop

Members of Job's Daughters will be servers at the community barbecue.

Proceeds from the event will go toward the work of the Chamber of Commerce here.

LG Light District Boundaries OKd

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The boundaries of a proposed Lemon Grove Lighting District were approved Tuesday by the County Boundary Commission.

Action on the same district had been held up two weeks earlier because of the errors in the descriptions.

Rudolph Benitez, acting commission engineer, reported the district is to be on both sides of Broadway, from Grove to Olive sts. It will be in two sections, with Imperial avenue to divide them. The district will have an area about 11½ acres.

SEVENTY-LOT SUBDIVISION OK'd HERE

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—An extension of a year for the filing of a final map for 70 lots in Berry Vale, the Lemon Grove subdivision to be developed by Alfred Brauer, was approved Friday by the County Planning Commission.

The commission's approval was on the condition that Brauer provide six-inch water pipe for fire protection.

Blackbird Flees, With Lunch Meat and Cheese

GREEDY NOW NEEDY

Three youths might not be in the toils of the law for possession of alcohol except for the greediness of one of the group. While two of the team were buying potato chips and pretzels, the other, listed as George Michael Blackbird, 19, lingered near the delicatessen cool cabinet of the Grove Liquor store at 7245 Broadway, L.G.

Blackbird was accused of tucking lunch meat and cheese beneath his sweater while his two pals, Stephen Fowler Jepson, 19, and Terry J. Smith, 20, all of Navy hospital, negotiated the purhase of chips. The clerk, Mrs. Feliciana L. Bouton called her husband and the youths fled. A sheriff's unit located a car resembling the one used by the youths at Oscar's drive-in, near the liquor store. Two cases of beer were found stashed away in the car and the minors were cited for illegal possession of alcohol and investigation is continuing on Blackbird.

30 CASES OF BOTTLES STOLEN

Thirty cases of empty bottles were taken from the premises of Knight's market, 1505 Skyline dr., L.G. according to Tommy Knight. A sheet of aluminum was pulled from a storage room to gain access to the bottles valued at $30.

ROCK-TOSSER SCORES 14

Someone who likes rock throwing better than school popped 14 windows out of the Bancroft elementary school leaving only the rocks as clues. The latter came from the school's flower beds.

CHURCH THIEF FOUND

A 13-year-old S.V. boy confessed to taking a jar full of money from the Bancroft Baptist church on July 11. He spent most of the money at the Golden Bowl. His parents agreed to make restitution.

SAVE $800

It was a hunch that saved $800 for a visitor from Germany at a Spring Valley man's home.

Hubert Schurkens visiting with Aloysius Johan Vermeule of 8865 Crestmore st., took a sightseeing trip of the area Sunday. At the last minute Schurkens decided to take along $800 he had withdrawn from the bank a couple of days before.

Intruders took a $97 watch, 12 cigars, 3 bottles of beer and $7.50 from a piggy bank, all belonging to Vermeule.

Schurkens lost a $125 wrist watch and six cartons of cigars.

Nothing else was taken from the house Vermeule told sheriff's deputies.

DOUBLE JEOPARDY

Already suffering financial loss because of fire damage to his house at 9112 La Mar st., S.V. David Henry Hogarth told sheriff's deputies that his tool shed was burglarized to the extent of $275.

The burglar used a duplicate key during Hogarth's absence, the latter occasioned by the burned house.

IN TECHNICOLOR

Darwin Myers, owner of Buddy's U-Wash, 2842 Bancroft dr., S.V. reported that an exhaust fan was taken from the rest room and that a coin-chute had been pried off a washer last week.

Charles Wold, 9358 La Mar st., reported about the same time that colored crayons had been thrown into his dryer-full of clothes with the expected results. A suspect was named.

BIKE FOUND

A Schwinn, "New World" 26 inch bicycle was found outside Noble's Market, Sweetwater and Jamacha rd., S.V. It was deposited at the sheriff's L.G. substation.

BIKE LOST

An English racer bicycle, belonging to Charles Yanchul, 13, of 7449 Tracey, L.G. was stolen from the bike rack at the Grove theatre last week. Young Yanchul said the bike is black, has a 3-speed gear and one handlebar grip is missing.

SNITCHES

The rear window of the auto of Stanley W. Marvin, 2362 El Prado, L.G. was broken by a rock last week while the car was parked in the garage. A neighborhood youngster identified his younger brother as the culprit. Parents will make restitution.

Are They Trying To Kill Nixon?

John Krehbiel, the king-pin of the Republican state central committee has conducted for himself a "grass-roots" poll in California's 58 counties to see what Republican would be uncovered as the most likely victor in the the 1962 election for governor.

The results of his poll are: Richard Nixon 70%; Goodwin Knight, 15%; Joe Shell 10%; SF Mayor George Christopher, 4%; Harold Powers and tv actor Ronald Regan, about 1%.

While Krehbiel's poll was conducted among slightly less than 1,000 volunteer GOP workers, he plans to extend it to 75,000 almost immediately.

As much as we dislike questioning Mr. Krehbiel's poll, we must. It doesn't line up with our own private study. In our oral poll Goodwin Knight would be a shoo-in with Mayor Christopher and Richard Nixon scrapping it out for second place. It must be acknowledged that Nixon is not yet a candidate. Neither is Knight.

Resistance to Nixon for governor centers about the use of state office as a stepping stone for another try for the Capitol.

Yet, there seems to be a very concerted Republican push to get Nixon lined up for the governor's race. We suspect that there are some Goldwater fans behind this. The theory could well be that Nixon, if he earns the Governorship would then lose the State in a Presidential election. This would discourage him from running for the national. If he runs for the Governorship and loses, he would be politically dead as a national candidate.

Thus, it would appear that if the Republicans can get Nixon to run, win or lose, for the state office, the way would be cleared for Barry Goldwater.

Hooray For The 'Cheesebox'

If there are two classes of Americans, race tracks have helped make this so. Race tracks have knighted certain persons of the betting gentry so that they may legally take your bets from behind barred windows within the confine of the fenced boundaries of a race track. Those doing the same, but without the sanction of the track owners, or beyond the limits of the racing oval, are crooks.

Attrition against our nation's bookmakers by the U.S. Government sets up the lines even clearer between the "good" guys and the "bad" guys last week.

Harrassment of the bookies was at the hands of a Senate investigations sub-committee which was trying to establish evidence linking some bookies with an electronic device which was being used to beat the government out of tax money the telephone companies out of tariff and the tracks out of profit.

The device, called the "cheesebox," bypasses telephone equipment that records the toll on long distance calls made by direct dialing. It also leaves no record of calls for police to trace, a boon for bookmaker trying to avoid persecution at the hands of the race track people.

The "cheesebox" sells for $1,500 and often paid for itself the first day of use. Of 100 believed to be manufactured, 75 are still unaccounted for.

As long as they are in use race tracks, telephone firms and the government will be shorted a certain amount of revenue claimed legally to be theirs.

Frankly, we can't understand the rules by which betting is legal by geography. At the Del Mar track, for example,

Holstein Cow Is Mother of Twins

A Holstein (family) cow, apparently trying not be be outdone (family-wise) by her master, gave birth to twins this week.

Bossie is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Meyer of 9099 Avocado ln., Spring Valley. They are parents of seven children.

The twins, born Sunday night, are jet black; one a heifer and the other a bull. After 24 hours of life each weighed 30 pounds. Bossie had been bred to a black Angus bull.

The Meyers are former Iowans who owned milk cows when they lived there. Mr. Meyer's parents are also milk cow owners. During all this time no twin calves were born to the Meyer's herds.

Just how often do cows bear twins? Vic Brown, county farm advisor says twin births to cows are not rare. It happens about as often to cows as it does to human mothers.

Bud Gfeller, foreman at the Jamul Ranch, with 500 cattle, said that calf twin births are rare. During the past six years that he herded cattle at the Ranch there has been just one twin birth

Beseiged Woman Notifies Police Of Strange Doings

A milk order, a television repairman, a piano tuner, a house call by the Salvation Army and her name in a lonely hearts ad in the paper characterized the past week of a Grove woman.

But Mrs. Frances Barr of 7625 Church street ordered none of them.

Her ad in the paper read: Attractive woman, 42, would like to meet man 35 to 45 who likes travel. (Telephone).

She received a flood of phone calls from men, she said. The ad taker at the paper said that whoever placed the ad was a fairly mature sounding woman who claimed that she was Mrs. Barr.

Mrs. Barr has reported the happenings to the sheriff's department. She said that there is no piano in her house, and the tuner was angry. She added that the TV man whose services she didn't require also was indignant.

The men answering her ad were keenly disappointed. When told there was no one in the house desiring their company and that the ad was false, the men usually responded somewhat nastily whether it was Mrs. Barr or someone else in the household answering the phone, she said.

Her teen-age son, Rees, received a bawling out from one of the men answering the ad.

Mrs. Barr told the sheriff's department that none of the things that happened were her doing. She added that there have been prowlers around the house. A strange shoeprint was observed under a window.

WHAT NEXT? — Standing by her kitchen telephone, Mrs. Frances Barr of Lemon Grove wonders what will happen next. Repairmen she didn't call have appeared at her home and have been as angry as she after hearing of the malicious campaign being waged against her by an unknown someone. Amorous gentlemen responded by phone to the lonely hearts ad put in this paper by a woman misrepresenting herself as Mrs. Barr. Told the truth, they bawled out whoever had answered the phone. Eldora St. People Growl On Gutters

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Assessments for the work done to put sidewalks and curbs and gutters in the Eldora street area of Lemon Grove were bitterly protested Tuesday morning in a public hearing before the County Board of Supervisors.

Property owners criticised the county for the cost of the project, compared with original estimates, and for the quality of work done by the contractor.

Property owners complained that the contractor who did the improvement job had left them without access to the street because of paving on their driveways. Cost of the project was $13,030.

BUSINESS ACTIVITY RISING

Security Bank's index of business activity in Southern California for July rose slightly over the June figure, to mark the seventh consecutive month in which the level of business activity has advanced.

2 False Alarms Bug Valley Firemen

Two false fire alarms were turned in to the Spring Valley fire department last week, and several have been turned in over the past few weeks, says acting fire chief, Assistant Fire Chief L. D. Lawton.

Chief Lawton points out that false alarms may be the difference between life and death in some cases. When a false alarm is turned in, it takes men and equipment away from the stations the same as a legitimate call does. Should a legitimate call come in while the crews are away chasing down a false alarm, the department would be short-handed, thereby ausing undue setback.

Chief Lawton warns that should a person be apprehended turning in a false alarm, that he is subject to a heavy penalty. If you see an unusual amount of smoke or believe there is a bad fire somewhere, check with your fire department before becoming unduly alarmed, says Chief Lawton.

NO FIRES REPORTED

There were no fires in the S.V. district this past week, but there were several ambulance runs.

Aug. 24. David Slavans, 17, of 10780 Eureka dr., was taken to a local doctor, suffering from a bruised knee, after the motorcycle he was riding crashed into a car at the intersection of Golf and Bancroft drs. Slavens said the car pulled out in front of him.

Aug. 25. Mrs. Cleo Anderson, 39, of 3602 S. Cordoba, was taken to a local doctor and then to a San Diego hospital, suffering from a possible stroke.

Aug. 26. Mrs. Byer L. Carter, 84, of 3600 S. Barcelona, was taken to Villa View hospital from an unknown cause, but was dead on arrival.

There's but one good place in the home for "leftovers." That's the refrigerator—and the "leftovers" should be foods, not medicines.

Medicine chest "leftovers" are risky at best, and often downright dangerous. The medicine your physician prescribed a year or so ago was intended to be used then, not now. Avoid serious danger—dump old medicine at once.

LM-SV School District Board Decides On Big Budget Slash

The board of education of the La Mesa-Spring Valley school district slashed $2,030,000 from the ballot amounts previously approved for the Oct. 10 election, according to a news release from the district.

In making the slash, the board said that it was being done after giving full consideration to the current economy of the area and expressions of citizens.

In addition to a request for a ceiling tax rate of $1.97 for operating purposes the ballot was to have contained requests for authorization to sell bonds up to $2,980,000 and accept state aid in amounts not to exceed $3,950,000.

New figures are $2,200,000 for the local bonds and $2,700,000 for state loans.

REDUCTION SUGGESTED

During the week following the August 7 approval of the ballot amounts by the board of education, suggestions were made by citizens that the period for which finances were being requested for the building program be reduced from five years to three years.

Appearing before the Board to support their action were Alan R. Perry and Jim Polak. Both speakers indicated that the lesser amounts would have a better chance of gaining approval from the voters. Superintendent of Schools, Glenn E. Murdock indicated that no funds for construction would be spent without State authorization which would be granted only if the school district had "unhoused" pupils which, in fact under the State law, determined eligibility. Murdock said that considering enrollment expectancies the amounts should keep the building program in process for a period of approximately 3 years.

NEED FOR ECONOMY

Board Chairman, Albert M. Peters, in discussing the proposed change said that the board of education recognized the need for strict attention to economy; thus, was approving the reduction in fund request even though it would mean that a future election would be needed sooner than if the original amount had been maintained. Voting "yes" on the reduction motion were trustees, Albert M. Peters, Margaret W. Burnett, and Anna L. Dewey. Two members, Dr. Cyril J. Padfield and Dr. Edward E. Smith, were absent.

New College Undecided On Architect

The Grossmont Junior College District has decided to investigate the merits of the firms interested in providing architectural services for the college, according to a recent release from the district.

The action by the board of trustees came following a special meeting during which local architects described the services they would provide.

Actual construction of the the college hinges upon the outcome of a bond election scheduled for Tues., Oct. 10. The election involves an $8 million bond issue to raise money to buy a site and construct facilities for 2,500 students.

In this coming first year of Grossmont College operation, the college will share facilities of the new Monte Vista High School. Expected are 700 day students as well as those to be enrolled for night courses. They will share the campus with 900 high school students.

Should the U. S. attack first in WWIII?

Lou Rella

Lou Rella, employe at U. S. National Bank in Lemon Grove, 3445 Sweetwater rd., Lemon Grove:

"If it comes to the point where war is absolutely inevitable, then we should attack. But the world situation isn't that tense right now. And military people know that everyone, not just servicemen, will be involved in World War III.

"The Communists still seem more interested in 'conquering from within' than to get involved in a regular war. But they will find that they will never be able to take the United States in this manner, and that is why sooner or later there will be a war."

Earl L. Morrison

Earl L. Morrison, Lemon Grove jeweler, 3899 Harris st. in Lemon Grove:

"Yes. We should wipe out Red China and Russia or they will do that to us. Red China soon will be a world power and we should obliterate them while we still have the advantage.

"The world is going to be overpopulated anyway. It's God's plan that something like this should happen. There is no reason why the people of the United States shouldn't be among the survivors of the great world catastrophe that is bound to happen."

Patti Long

Patti Long, junior at Mt. Miguel High School, 8225 Golden ave., Lemon Grove:

"If there is a war, it won't matter who starts it. No one is going to be left anyway. But we shouldn't regard the world situation as that explosive. The cold war can go on a long time without involving the world in hot war.

"Our goal of peace would be defeated if we attack first to start World War III. And besides, Russia is as scared of us as we are of them and I don't think they will start a war."

Donald Carr

Donald Carr, aircraft engineer, 1613 Woodrow st. in Lemon Grove:

"The U. S. should never attack first. Our whole philosophy is against it. Besides we're engaged in a very important propaganda war with Russia and if we were to attack, our world image would be lost.

"However, if our intelligence corps indicated that Russia was on the verge of attacking us, we should attack first. But I don't believe there's any indication of that. We should continue to maintain sufficient armed forces and modern weapons to keep Russia at bay.

NEW RATES for NATURAL GAS SERVICE EFFECTIVE SEPT. 16, 1961

The California Public Utilities Commission's Decision No. 62446 authorizes a $6,190,000 increase in rates for natural gas service effective September 16, 1961. This is only the third general increase since the introduction of natural gas to San Diego 28 years ago. It is the result of the Company's formal application filed with the Commission November 23, 1960, requesting an adjustment in rates which would increase the Company's annual revenues $7,354,000. Of this total, $4,494,200 was to offset increases in the rates for purchased gas and the balance to cover increased expenses for wages, taxes, and other higher costs required in serving customers.

Evidence in these matters was presented to the Commission during 18 days of scheduled public hearings ending June 29, 1961.

The amount of increase granted is 84% of that sought by the Company. The reduction is accounted for principally by differences in estimated gas department revenues and expenses for the test year 1961. Also it is noted that the Commission has allowed only 6.3% rate of return as compared with 6.5% found fair and reasonable in 1958.

While it is indicated that an increase in rates amounting to $6,190,000 annually has been allowed, $1,330,000 of this amount is an increase in charge to be made for gas used for the generation of electricity. Thus the increase to gas customers is only $4,860,000 or 66% of the amount sought. This results in an average increase to gas customers of only 19%. The effect on a typical bill for residential gas service is an increase of $1.13 per month, or 3.8 cents per day. This is based on a use of 5,000 cubic feet in Zone One (Metropolitan area) where the change will be from the present level of $5.74 to $6.87 under the revised schedule.

LOSERS KEEPERS — Lt. Cdr. Frank Wilson of Spring Valley, points to the German cross on the German flag he has kept as a war souvenir. He decided to give it and other war mementos back to the former owners, who have accepted.

Lt. Cdr. Wilson Collects German War Mementos; Returning Same

by TOMMY THOMAS

Lt. Cdr. Frank R. Wilson, (USN, ret) of 9271 Lamar st., Spring Valley, has been living among his souvenirs for many a year, souvenirs from many parts of the globe. Frank or "Smokey" as many of his friends call him, is a volunteer (and honorary captain) fireman on the S.V. Fire Department.

Among his souvenirs are a German flag and a notebook written in German. But the commander recently wanted to dispose of these mementos of other years, for, as he said, there will be no one to leave them to when he passes on.

How did Frank Wilson acquire these souvenirs? He had been in the Naval Reserve since 1911, had gone through the Vera Cruz fracas, and was called back into service when the U.S. entered World War I in 1917.

ABOARD CAPTURED SHIP

Signing up as an ensign, young Frank Wilson was assigned duty aboard an interned German steamer in Baltimore, Md. The steamer, the S.S. Antigony, a 12,000 ton vessel, was still uncommissioned when Wilson arrived. The engines had been smashed, but the Germans had made one mistake; they left the parts around, and these were welded back together and the ship put into running condition.

While the ship was still uncommissioned, Ensign Wilson found the German notebook aboard, belonging to a Herr Braun, the ship's chief engineer, and the German Naval Reserve flag (with the traditional black cross) which was flying aft. Wilson has kept them all these years.

GERMANS DELIGHTED

Recently, wishing to dispose of the flag and notebook, he wrote to the North German Lloyd Steamship line office in Germany, telling them of his souvenirs and asking if they wanted them back. He received a reply that they would be delighted to have the souvenirs returned and asked Wilson to send them to the company's San Francisco office. Wilson since has heard from the S.F. office, and intends to send on the flag. He has already sent the notebook to Germany, and requested that if Herr Braun is still alive, that he write.

Frank Wilson says there are two other such flags in the United States. He said (he has heard) that one is at Annapolis, Md., and the other somewhere in Boston.

BECOMES TRANSPORT

Regarding the S.S. Antigony. She was commissioned in 1901, as the S.S. Necker. When the United States took her over, she was used as a transport, carrying 3600 Army men (each trip) to France. She made 14 such trips before the Armistice was signed. On one such trip the S.S. President Lincoln, which was nearby, was sunk, just out of Brest, France. What has happened to the ship since WWI, Wilson doesn't know. "She may have been cut up for razor blades," he said. The last he heard, the ship's name had been changed to the 'Potomac.'"

Frank Wilson, since his Navy days, spent 45 years as a chief engineer in the Merchant Marine. He is a member of Foothills Barracks 1774 World War I Veterans of Spring Valley.

La Jolla Playhouse To Ring Down Seasonal Curtain

The La Jolla Playhouse will ring down the final curtain on the 1961 season this Saturday night at the end of the 9 o'clock performance on one of the most successful and certainly the most endearing play of the season - "A Majority Of One," starring Fred Clark.

Mr. Clark, whom one usually expects as a comedian in high gear turns in a skillful characterization of the lonely Japanese widower. Mrs. Jacoby, a motherly Jewish matron played by Lilliam Adams, is receiving rave notices by critics and audiences alike.

"Majority Of One" is a delightful play for everyone and we urge you not to miss this La Jolla Playhouse production. Performances will be Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights at 8:30 p.m. and Saturday at 6 and 9 p.m.

Land Grant Demanded For Broadway Zone Variance

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A zone change to allow commercial use was granted for land just off Broadway, Lemon Grove, at the Friday County Planning Commission, without the request for right of way on Broadway proposed by the commission committee that studied the site.

The applicant was Mrs. Louella W. Fellows, for land behind property that she owns with a Broadway frontage, between Kempf street and Washington street. The committee proposal was that the request for C-2, heavy commercial use, be approved if Mrs. Fellows would give the county land for a 50-foot right of way on Broadway.

County counsel, said the request was "not appropriate" and added that the county's plans for improving Broadway should not single out one property owner who would be forced to give up land, while other property owners were paid.

The same zoning being sought by Bernhard Petheley for land adjoining that of Mrs. Fellows was ordered withheld until the Petheley property has access to Broadway. The commission was told that Petheley's land now is connected to Golden avenue by a 30-foot easement.

In an application for a zoning variance later considered, it was disclosed that the Fellows property is to be used for a service station.

SIGN VARIANCE ASKED

Bob Rundell, as trustee, asked to be allowed to put up a sign 40 and a half feet from the center line of Broadway, instead of the required 70 feet.

The committee that sudied the site recommended that his request be denied, on the basis that other signs on the same street meet the setback requirements.

Rundell disagreed, and showed the commission pictures of signs as close to the street as he wants to put his. He said at least 10 signs were closer than they should be.

Dr. Willis H. Miller, county planning director; said no variances had been approved, so the signs must be there in violation of the law.

The commission agreed to put off action on another variance asked for a different Lemon Grove Service station.

The other applicant was Dwight L. Williams, asking to be allowed to put pump islands, a canopy and a sign closer to the center line of Federal boulevard, opposite Mallard street, than the law allows.

NEW RESIDENTIAL ZONING HEARING SET FOR FRIDAY

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A public hearing on a proposal to create a new residential zoning category was ordered Friday by the County Planning Commission.

To be known as "R-1-B," the new zone would permit single family dwellings on building sites with an area of 7,500 square feet. This is between the 10,000 square feet required in R-1 and the 6,000 square feet for R-1-A. Side yards of not less than 10 feet would be required in this new zone.

The commission ordered the hearing, and it was stated that it would likely be in September, depending on the public notice that is required.

Vista La Mesa Minister To Talk On Spare Time

"On Using Our Spare Time" has been selected as the Labor Day sermon at Vista La Mesa Christian Church. The Sept. 3 services will be at 9:45 and 11 a.m., with crib and nursery care provided.

The sermon is to deal with the problem of making creative use of spare time as brought about by technological progress is this country, according to Rev. Richard G. Davis, minister.

The junior highs meet at 6:30 and the senior highs at 7 p.m.

Sermon Deals With Man's Right To Down Evil

"Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, that I am God." These words from the prophet Isaiah (43:12) are the Golden Text of the Lesson-Sermon on "Man" in all Christian Science churches on Sunday.

Strong assurance of man's God-given right to conquer every form of evil will highlight the sermon.

Scriptural selections include these striking words of Paul to the Romans (8:35, 37), "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?. . .Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us."

A native of New York, Mrs. Peebles had been here two years.

Mass was said at 9 a.m. Wednesday and interment was in Ft. Rosecrans cemetery.

Rev. Taylor Picks Third Commandment As Sermon Subject

Rev. Roland Taylor will speak on the Third Commandment, "Thou Shalt Not Take The Name Of Thy Lord, Thy God In Vain" at this Sunday's services. The Chapel choir will be singing at the 8 a.m. services, and the Chancel choir at the 11 a.m. services. In the evening, Rev. Taylor will bring a Communion service message.

The church urges all men of the area to register for a Baptist Conference to be held at Thousand Pines, Sept. 14, 15 and 16.

The King's Couples of the S.V. First Baptist Church are in the activity of collecting White Star Pepsi-Cola bottle caps. These are to be turned in to the company and the proceeds to be used to purchase equipment and toys for the church nursery. Mrs. Peggy Byrd and Mrs. Gayle Taylor are in charge of the campaign. Everyone is asked to contribute caps.

Mrs. Carter, 84, Former Pianist, Succumbs Aug. 26

Private funeral services for Mrs. Byer L. Carter, 84, of 3602 S. Barcelona st., Spring Valley, are being held Thursday of this week at Greenwood Mortuary, with cremation following. Mrs. Carter passed away Aug. 26 en route to Villa View hospital.

A native of New York City, Mrs. Carter and her family moved to the San Diego area in 1905. She was the widow of the late Dr. Walter Caldwell Carter, and had formerly lived in La Jolla.

A talented pianist, Mrs. Carter had been honored at the age of 17 by being a guest artist with the Boston Symphony. She had become interested in the nursing field at 18 and helped by being a nurse in World War I, when she was with troop transport work.

She was a life member of the National Red Cross; a member of the board of directors of the San Diego Chapter, American Red Cross; a member of the Florence Nightingale National Foundation of the Red Cross, and had served six years as National Volunteer of the A.R.C., being appointed by director John Barton Payne.

Mrs. Carter is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Beatrice McGlashan, of San Diego.

The DIMMER VIEW

betting is legal while the same activity conducted outside the Del Mar fence, perhaps only a block away, leads the bettaker to the pokey.

Book betting would be legal, we feel, if the fat-cats at Del Mar and other tracks would permit it. Money from bookie operations, now lost, would provide a tremendous source of revenue in the state. Enough, probably, to do away with beer taxes, cigarette taxes, and possibly, state income taxes. There would be more than enough left over to provide for "improving the breed" of race horses, too

The "cheesebox" could revolutionize race track gambling. It may revolutionize the telephone monopoly, too but we shed no tear over that. The telephone companies have been using an electronic device to extract coins from pay-station users for years. Non-electronically, it has the Public Utilities Commission to give the odor of legality to higher tariff rates.

We hope the 75 "cheeseboxes" are never found.

As long as they are being used for beating the utilities-serving PUC and are heckling the track-owning fat-cats, the small bettor, who likely as not has to use his telephone bill money to get a bet down on a likely winner, enjoys the illusion of a small degree of emancipation.

Newspaper Strikes Back

The John Birch Society has started sending a copy of its monthly bulletin to every newspaper in the United States, it announced last week.

The announcement included a letter which said, in part: "Whether you heartily approve or vigorously disapprove of anything or anything we are doing, at least you will have the information about our actions and our plans, directly from ourselves."

The letter was signed by Robert H. Welch, Jr., founder of the ultra-conservative organization.

The 20-page bulletin received at this newspaper's office containing, among other things, a 10-point agenda for August. The tenth point had to do with newspapers. Members were admonished to thank the editor of any newspaper supporting the movement but "if an editor misquotes or distorts something we have said, or a position or an activity of the Society, DON'T TAKE IT LYING DOWN."

The JB Society got itself on our "lunatic fringe" list a while back when members suggested that Dwight Eisenhower was a communist. This was pretty poor judgment since no proof was ever offered. We assume that this is a sample of the group's judgment on other matters as well.

The current top project of the JB Society is a $2,500 essay contest for American undergraduates on the subject: "Grounds for the Impeachment of (Supreme Court Justice Earl) Warren."

At least one newspaper editor has something to say, and equally important, something to do about the Society.

Thomas M. Storke, editor-publisher of the Santa Barbara News-Press last week slapping back at the JB Society announced a $1,500 essay contest on "the psychiatric remedy."

Said Storke, "A serious public issue, with both legal and psychiatric implications, has been raised by organized attacks on the integrity and patriotism of distinguished American citizens."

He said the essays in his contest should be based principally on "the politician" and other writings by the founder and leader of the John Birch Society.

Help For The Druggists?

Pity the plight of the retail druggist.

The State Assembly keeps an eye on retail drug prices to detect the first signs of price-fixing while the State Welfare Department continually complains of the lack of regularity in prescription prices.

The federal government has charged drug manufacturing firms with profiteering and price fixing and the public complains about the prices it pays for prescriptions.

Against this turmoil, the consumer is plagued by ailment or illness, else he wouldn't need the prescription, so he is in no mood to take a sympathetic position.

The going rate of wages for the drug store pharmacist is one of the highest among any of the wage-earning professions we know.

In the midst of this, without a chance in the world of satisfying all elements of these pressures is the retailer who has the interest of his customers at heart which is backed up by a huge investment in his business.

Someday there may be a federal aid program for the neighborhood druggist. He deserves sympathetic consideration.

Kitchens Come First

Edgar Flinn, an area reader, frequently sends us material from the semi-monthly "AWAKE," a publication of a national cult.

The current issue he sent us was flagged at an article of nuclear war by accident but our interest was greater for a reprint article by author-lecturer Harry Golden.

Golden is quoted from a LIFE magazine article in 1958 as saying: "If I were faced today with the decisions my ancestors faced — become a Christian or die — I would pick a church fast. There is nothing to offend me in the modern church. The minister gives a talk on juvenile delinquency one week, reviews a movie next week, then everybody goes downstairs and plays Bingo. The first part of a church they build nowadays is the kitchen."

HAS CAR, SEEK WHEEL

Mrs. Doris Mae Rindle, of 7282 Central, L.G. complained to the sheriff's department that when Dalton K. Meek, 35, a man with no permanent address, borrowed her car, last week she did not expect he would refuse to give up the car keys when he returned it at the end of the day.

Following him into the Broadway bar in another car, she made demands, she said, for the keys and a tire and wheel missing from the car's trunk. She said Meek was not meek when he refused. She claims Meek tried to close the car's door on her legs, and when her daughter, Sharon Ann Hadfield attempted to come to her aid, Meek knocked her down. She then got the keys but not the tire and wheel. Meeks left and she reported him to be living presently in a Massachusetts ave. trailer court.

BIRDS BELIEVED SHOT

Two of five racing pigeons belonging to Leslie Shepard, 6927 Central ave., L.G. are missing he told a sheriff's unit. They are suspected of having been shot to death. A suspect was named.

DOUGH GONE

Nine $20 bills were removed from a cabinet drawer in the Spring Valley home of Mr. and Mrs. Recklau at 3121 Helix st. during the past week.

YOUNG MAN IS SLING SHOOTER

Steel balls were used to break windows at the home of Harriette J. Midose of 3117 Crane st., L.G. last week. She reported that a window of the home of Dwight Putnam at 3055 Crane st., where her daughter Kittie was baby sitting, also was broken.

A sheriff's unit questioned Bob Braasch, 19, of 3130 Crane st. He admitted he had been firing steel balls from a sling shot. All broken windows are visible from Crane st.

PALM JR. HI VICTIMIZED AGAIN

More malicious mischief cropped up this week at Palm junior high in L.G. This time it was damage done to the school's fire extinguishers.

Culprits took the extinguishers from a closet, popped off the tops, took the pressure cartridges and left the damaged devices on the school's lawn.

A report was made to the sheriff's office by Robert Jurgensen, 8110 Jefferson ave., L.G. who found the damage when he opened the school on Monday for registration of students.

The sheriff's office warned that the cartridges taken from the extinguishers are dangerous and may explode if dropped. The pressure in the cartridges is 800 pounds.

SUSPECT NABBED AFTER LEWD CALLS

Mrs. Mary Jane Paulson of 9042 Orville, S.V. endured six weeks of lewd telephone calls to get clues that might lead to the caller, and this week the sheriff's office has a suspect.

The suspect, not yet charged, has a record of child molestation and petty theft against him and is presently on probation.

BIKE TAKEN

Gregory Lee Silverthorn of 8345 Golden ave., L.G. told the sheriff's department that his 26 inch Columbia bicycle was stolen last week. The bike was a blue metallic color and had a thin front tire and a knobby back one.

RIFLE STOLEN

Donald Charles Ebergard, a delivery driver for Border Cleaners, told sheriff's men that someone had broken into his home at 8922 Harness st., S.V. last week for the fourth time.

This time a .22 rifle was taken. On other occasions some Hank Williams records and a young dog were taken. In another instance, four pigeons were released from cages.

"LIFE"

The goal of life for which we have been given life is to be with God forever. However, we have to decide now whether or not this is what we want. The new heaven and the new earth with all the wonders which man could never imagine lie before us. Can you take any chance on losing out on the goal God created you for?

GOLDEN-RULE DAYS HERE

Back-To-School information Released By School District

Registration for children who will be attending local elementary and junior high schools will begin September 1, according to Dr. David Pascoe, assistant superintendent of the La Mesa-Spring Valley schools. Classes will resume Monday, Sept. 11.

Children attending local schools at the close of the semester in June need not re-register. Children who will be attending La Mesa-Spring Valley schools for the first time in September must be registered. A child legally enrolled in a school outside the district may be admitted to school and placed in the proper grade upon registration and presentation of evidence of enrollment and grade placement in the former school of attendance, Dr. Pascoe said.

BIRTHDATE PROOF

In registering children for kindergarten, parents should bring proof of the child's birth date with them. The California State Education Code requires that a child "shall be four years and nine months of age on or before September 1 of the current school year" in order to enter kindergarten. In other words, he should be five years old on or before December 2, 1961. Minimum entering age for the first graders in California as of September 1 1961, is five years and nine months.

A birth certificate, baptismal record, signed affidavit from parent or guardian, or other verification of birth should be presented at the time of registration. Important health information such as dates of smallpox, polio and diphtheria innoculations should also be brought at that time. Records of polio innoculations are not mandatory according to the County Health Department since such regulation will not become effective until Jan. 2, 1962. However, it is advised that if such records are available, they be brought to registration.

Now Grossmont College Plans Extended Day Program For Fall

Thirty-six evening courses will be offered in the Grossmont College extended day program this fall. All courses apply to the Associate in Arts degree and may be transferred to four-year colleges and universities.

"The number of courses offered will increase considerably in the future as experience has shown that the evening program traditionally serves more students than the day program in the two-year public college," observed John S. Hansen, president of Grossmont College.

The registration for extended day courses is nearly identical with that of the day program since students must make written application, take placement tests, if no previous college work has been completed, and arrange for transcripts to be forwarded to Grossmont College's Admissions Office for all college and high school work.

Students may request a copy of the Schedule of Classes to be mailed by calling HO 5-1700. Pre - registration counselling will be available to interested persons in Room 311 of the Monte Vista High School campus each week night from 6 to 10 p.m., starting August 21 through August 31.

ADULTS ENCOURAGED

"Adult students are encouraged to see the extended day program as offering many possibilities," stated Dr. Chas. Collins, dean of instruction, who has the responsibility for developing evening course schedules. "These classes provide preparation for a vocation, preparation to upper division programs of instruction at other colleges, the chance to get a better general education, or perhaps just participation in a short lecture or film series as a matter of personal improvement."

In addition to the more traditional college courses such as English Composition, History of Western Civilization, Introduction to Psychology, Business Law and Survey of Biology, some courses of unique interest will be presented. Among these are Life Drawing, Business Data Processing, Personal Finance Management, Creative Writing, World Events, Great Music Listening, Marriage and the Family, and Introduction to the Theatre. Prospective students are urged to contact the College Admissions Office at their earliest opportunity after August 21.

CROWN GALL

Loganberries, raspberries and other cane fruits, (also roses) are sometimes afflicted by a growth at the crown of the root, just above the ground. The substance resembles cork in appearance and weight. This condition is serious. It is known as crown gall.

If the bushes appear healthy and have not begun to show any ill effect from the disease you have a chance to save them. The treatment is to prune away the gall, cutting down to the healthy cane or root. Disinfect the wound thoroughly with undiluted vinegar. Be careful not to scatter prunings as they are highly infectious and might infect other plants with which they come in contact.

When you've cleaned the roots in this way, spray them thoroughly with a strong fungicide koppersol and do not be in a hurry to cover the base area of the plants which you have uncovered in your pruning operation. Air and sunlight are beneficial to assist in clearing up crown gall.

News and Views from Spring Valley

By Tommy Thomas

Yours Truly Takes Family On Vacation

I've been writing about other people's vacations this summer. For a change of pace, I'd like to give you a picture of how this individual (wife, son and daughter-in-law) learned a few interesting facts about Northern California and Nevada on a recent 10-day trip.

We started out at about 7 p.m. one day and decided to go up Highway 395 as far as Lassen County, our objective being Eagle Lake to stay in a friend's cabin and do a bit of angling.

I learned two things on the first leg of the journey: 1) It's best to cross the desert at night (especially this time of year), and 2) watch for road signs, especially when there has been a new highway put in. Regarding the latter, we got off Highway 395 and ended up at Barstow, about 30 miles out of the way. But it was real pleasant and we saw some new country.

LODGINGS SCARCE

We drove until about 2:30 a.m. the following day. But we failed to realize that fishermen are on the road this time of year. We were quite fortunate to get a hotel room in Big Pine (just north of Lone Pine.) It was the last room available.

The roads in the northern part of the state are real good. There is very little work in progress on the highways there. The weather was ideal except near Carson City, Nev., where we were caught in a terrific shower with thunder and lightning to boot.

The second night we found (luckily) the last room in a Reno motel (most all of them were filled with "No Vacancy" signs everywhere).

"The Biggest Little City in the World". . . .RENO, NEV. Boy, what a town. It seemed to me that all the Californians had left their state and stopped in Reno. I guess if it wasn't for California residents, Reno would not exist. I saw more California cars there than you'll see right here in this state.

BANDITS NOISY

And gambling. . .the slot machines (One-Armed Bandits) made more noise than a dozen printing presses! Do people like to gamble? Could be, from what we saw in Reno. People waited two and three deep to get to the slot machines. The black-jack tables and other gambling games were going full blast, the night we were there. Many a fortune, I understand, has been lost there. Some people brag about the money they have won, but few say anything about their losses. Anyhow, it's an interesting place to go and see.

Not only are slot machines in gambling houses but in many other business houses; cafes, curio shops, drug stores and others. They don't say "gambling" in Reno, they say "gaming."

RIVER OF RINGS

We found food was not too dear in Nevada, but rooms and quarters are fairly high. There are many good second-hand cars for sale, especially around Reno and Carson City, many of the cars being Cads and other top autos. The Truckee River flows through Reno and we were told that is the place were divorcees throw their wedding rings. And speaking of divorce and marriage; it's easy to get a divorce there and easy to "get hitched." While we were in Reno we witnessed several wedding parties motoring through the streets.

We stopped in Susanville for supplies before going on to the lake. Susanville, the largest town in Lassen County, is the county seat, and boasts a couple of colleges, one being Lassen College where you may study to be a forest ranger or a member of the State Division of Forestry.

STRIKES PREVALENT

Although Susanville seemed quite busy, we were told there has been strikes going on in that part of the state, particularly among some of the lumbermen. Employment is good for carpenters and other builders, we were told, as there are many cabins being built around the lakes and around the towns. But it will be better when the lumber strikes are settled.

Good fishing and water go hand in hand; and you'll find both in Northern California. But we did find two areas where bodies of water had been, but are now dry; one was Honey Lake (a vast area) south of Susanville, which has been dry five years, it depending entirely on melting snows and rains. The other was part of Pine Creek, north of Eagle Lake. Incidently, if you ever go to Susanville, be sure to drop over to Silver Lake, just a few miles west of Susanville. The lake is a regular Garden of Eden, with its tall trees growing right down by the water's edge.

NORTH HAS WATER

Water, water, water. . .the North has it . . .we need it. What a beautiful green land we'd have if that northern water was divided with us! Will we see the day when that is possible? Time can only tell. Some authorities say the day day is not too far off; while others scoff at the idea. Nevertheless it takes water to make beauty.

HIBBARD FAMILY GETS FIRST GRANDCHILD

Congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. (William and Carolyn) Pinkerton of Menlo st., San Diego, on the arrival Aug. 16 of their first child, a son, born at Paradise Valley hospital, and weighing in at 8 lbs., ½ oz. The little lad has been named Mark Lloyd. Mrs. Pinkerton is the former Carolyn Hibbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Hibbard of 3620 S. Barcelona St., Spring Valley. Also the new arrival is the first grandchild in the Hibbard family.

DEGROOT IS GOVERNOR

Congratulations to Bill DeGroot of Upland dr., Spring Valley, on his appointment recently as District Governor of Toastmasters. Bill's been doing a fine job with the local Toastmasters, who meet each Tuesday evening the Pac. Tel and Tel offices on Lamar street.

TED PHILLIPS HURT

Sorry to hear about Ted Phillips of 3546 Helix st., S.V. Ted, who is a leadman at North Island, narrowly escaped death last week, when he entered a pressurized chamber. When he opened the door a terrific explosion took place. Ted was taken to the base hospital, suffering from an injured arm and finger. His wife said he went into shock soon afterward. He is still being treated, according to Mrs. Phillips.

Spring Valleyites Fete Anniversaries

Several wedding anniversaries reported this week:

Aug. 21. Mr. and Mrs. (Harry and Helen) Ulmen, 3430 Calavo Dr., their 20th. Married in San Diego, they have lived in the valley 11 years.

Aug. 30. Mr. and Mrs. (William and Louise) DeGroot, 9502 Upland dr., their 25th. Married in San Diego, they have been here 11 years. Incidently, for their "silver anniversary" the DeGroots were honored at a surprise party given by their square dance club, the Grand Squares of San Diego.

Aug. 30. Mr. and Mrs. (William and Ruth) Garrett, 10079 Casa de Oro blvd., their 31st. Married in San Pedro, Calif., they have been here 14 years.

Aug. 31. Mr. and Mrs. (Louis and Verda) Lyng, 8749 Carrolle Cir., their 32nd. Married in Sioux Falls, S.D., they have been here four years.
